The attention of the Board of Supervisors has been called to a serious drop in the ceiling of the hallway on the second floor of the Courthouse, directly in front of the entrance to the Supervisors' room and at the head of the stairway. The west wall of the tower on the county buildings is immediately above this depression in the ceiling and it looks as if the weight of the wall had proved too much for the brick arch which was intended to support that side of the tower. The matter has been placed in the hands of competent persons, and a thorough examination will be made. The Sons of Veterans Camp of this village will attend services at the Presbyterian Church this evening, when the pastor, the Rev. Dr. A. R. Macoubrey, will deliver an appropriate address. The suit brought by Mrs. Julia C. Stivers of New-Rochelle, for the annulment of the marriage between her son, Harold M. Wise, and Elizabeth Roma Wise, came up before Justice J. O. Dykman at a special term of the Supreme Court yesterday. The case recently was tried before Justice Garretson, in the Supreme Court, upon the question whether Harold M. Wise was under eighteen years old at the time the marriage took place before Mayor Strong, in New-York City, and the jury found that he was. This fact having been established, the case went back to Justice Dykman, before whom the original proceedings were taken, to decide if, under the circumstances, the marriage should be annulled. Yesterday the Justice heard the motions in the case and took the papers, reserving his decision.

A HIGHWAYMAN CAPTURED.

HE IS CHARGED WITH ASSAULTING AND ROBBING

A STEAMSHIP ENGINEER. The Leonard-st, police worked all day yesterday on a case of highway robbery which was brought to light in a peculiar manner, and last evening landed an alleged highwayman behind the bars. The prisoner is Michael Schenic, twenty-six years old, a hackdriver, of No. 82 Watts-st. He was arrested by Detectives Cox and Donohue in a Sullivan-st. livery stable.

Soon after 3 o'clock yesterday morning Policeman Jacoby, who is detailed at the Old Dominion steamship pier, No. 26, North River, found a black derby hat in the street, but was unable to find its owner, so he reported the matter to the police station, where he took the hat. After a long search the detectives learned that Benjamin James, assistant engineer on the steamship Old Dominion, while picking his way through a cluster of wagons had been knocked down and kicked in the face by two men and robbed of about $250. He struggled to his feet, he says, in time to recognize Schenic, who ran saway with his companion.

James had been drinking, but he reached his vessel in a battered and bruised condition. He recognized Schenic last night at the police station, and the latter acknowledged being at the score of the robbery and assault, but disclaimed taking any part in it.

Schenic, when arrested, had on an entire new outfit, even to his hat, shoes and underwear, and had several dollars in his pockets. He was locked up. Another man was arrested as his accomplice, but he could not be positively identified by James. The latter lives at No. 129 West One-hundred-and-seventeenth-st. derby hat in the street, but was unable to find its

The Masonic fraternity of Yonkers turned out in monies of unveiling the handsome monument which has been erected in Oakland Cemetery by Rising 5133, 5443, 5504, 5505, 5506, 5572, 5547, 5574, 5 Star Lodge No. 450, F. and A. M., to the memory of their dead brethren. At 3 o'clock a procession, composed of over one hundred members of Yonkers Commandery, K. T., in full regalia, and the mem-bers of Rising Star and Neperhan lodges, headed by a band, proceeded through the principal streets to the cemetery, where a great throng of peopawaited their arrival. All the Master Masons were nttired in uniform of black, and wore white glove and aprons. The exercises opened with prayer by the Rev. Deloss Lull, chaplain of Rising Star Lodge, and then the assemblage sang, to the music of "Nearer, My God, to Thee," a hymn composed specially for the occasion. The monument was turned over to the care of the lodge by J. Edward Murphy, chairman of the Monument Committee. The stone and the plot were accepted by Theodore J. Bayer, master of the lodge.

When the covering was taken from the shaft John Stewart, Past Grand Master of the State of New-York, delivered an eloquent oration. After the singing of the Doxology the Rev. Enos K. Bosworth, of the Nepperhan Avenue Baptist Church, gave the benediction.

The monument is of white granite, and is 11 feet to inches high and 3 feet wide at the base. It is surmounted by a ball of granite two feet in diameter. On the four sides of the stone are pilasters with carved capitals, and on the front and back of the die are carved Masonic emblems. Among the preminent Masons present were John R. Pope, grand lecturer; William S. Thompson, past grand secretary; Henry S. Prusser, grand marshal; Moses D. Getty, past district deputy; John H. Bonnington, past grand commander, and Commander Lyman Cobb, jr., of Yonkers Commandery.

After the ceremonics the grand officers had dinner at the Getty House.

SHOT IN A WEST SIDE SALOON.

William Hoffman, who keeps a saloon at No. 34 West One-hundred-and-thirty-fifth-st., and is known in the street in which he lives as "the quiet neighbor." was arraigned before Coroner Tuthill yesterday afternoon and sent to the Tombs without bail. In the morning Magistrate Pool, in the Harlem Court, had held Hoffman to await the Coroner's action, in the case of Walter Stewart, a young colored man, of No. 40 West One-hundred-and-thirty-fifth-st., who was shot in the left breast about midnight Friday and died several minutes later. The snooting occurred in Hoffman's saloon. Hoffman declares that the affair was an accident, a revolver going off as he was showing it to Stewart, but the police declare that the shooting was not an accident, and, moreover, that Stewart was violently pushed by Hoffman, falling on the stone steps and cutting his head.

Mrs. Eugenia Meintyre, colored, of No. 40 West One-hundred-and-thirty-fifth-st., testfied before Magistrate Pool that she saw Stewart stagger in the street a moment after the shot was fired. Oiliver Johnson, also colored, corroborated Mrs. McIntyre's stery.

When the detectives went to arrest Hoffman at 12:30 o'clock yesterday morning they found his saloon closed and the man in bed, apparently asleep. Mrs. Henrietta Stewart, the mother of the dead man, declared yesterday morning that she believed Hoffman's statement. She knew him to be a peace-loving man. breast about midnight Friday and died several

STRIKING TAILORS ON A PICNIC. The time of the East Side striking tailors was divided yesterday between attending the religious services in the synagogues and the big picnic at Ridgewood Park, Long Island. The proceeds of the pionic will be devoted to the relief fund of the strikers. The people who went to the picnic had a great time. There was much dancing and had had for years. Meyer Schoenfeld and others made speeches in the afternoon and urged the strikers to stand firm.

The probing into the grievances of the strikers by immigration inspector Marks and Robert M. Watchorn, formerly Chief Factory Inspector of Pennsylvania, by order of Lyman J. Gage, Secretary of the Treasury, was discussed at the meeting of the Contractors' Association yesterday. Some of the contractors were of the opinion that the Government's agents named had some object in view other than investigating the causes of the periodical strikes among the tailors.

Daniel O'Leary, Chief Factory Inspector of this State, came to this city yesterday from Albany to make a special inquiry, it was reported, into the conditions under which the tailors have been working.
